Instructions

1. Cut paper all the paper from the list above.
2. Glue Striped piece measuring  $3 \frac{3}{4}$ " x 5" to one piece of the Rich Razzleberry measuring 4" x  $5 \frac{1}{4}$ ". Place the 2nd largest smooth die on top of this piece as close to the center as you can. Now cut a circle from this piece by running through your die machine.
3. Next glue this piece with the circle cut out to the front of the card base. Now open up your card and laying the front up, with inside stretched out of the way place the same 2nd largest die into the hole that you cut from the front panel. Run through the die machine with the card base open so as not to cut the back of the card. I made this a two-step process because I think the cardstock is too thick to cut three layers at one time.
4. Now let's assembly the penguin. Stamp the eyes first then cut the center of the penguin out of Basic White using the punch. Stamp the heart onto the body of the penguin. Next punch out the outside of the penguin using the basic black cardstock. Punch out the feet, and I just cut a small triangle for the nose out of the Pumpkin Pie cardstock. Glue the white part of the penguin to the black part. Lastly glue feet and nose into position. Lay aside.

5. Glue the snowflake circle to one of the circles of Rich Razzleberry cardstock. Glue the two strips of Rich Razzleberry 1" x 8" each together. Fold in half about the 4" mark.
6. Stamp the sentiment Happy Birthday on the piece of cardstock cut 3 ¾" x 5" using the Rich Razzleberry Ink. Make sure the Happy Birthday is about the center of the front circle when held in place. Lay aside. You can now emboss the sentiment on the piece of Rich Razzleberry Cardstock to 1" x 3 ½". Remove the static from the piece of cardstock, then stamp sentiment using Versamark ink. Pour white embossing powder over sentiment then allow it to fall onto a scrap piece of cardstock so you can put excess powder back in the jar. Tap the back of the cardstock to remove excess powder. Using the heat gun, melt the powder.
7. Using the small stitched rectangle die that fits the sentiment run through the die machine.
8. Glue the two circle borders to the front and inside front around the opening. Note that the outside border edge will be larger than the hole and the inside will be protrude past the hole inward. This will allow both to seal to the card and each other.
9. Now close card and mark the top and bottom of the circle on the card base inside back. Open card and lay one inch strip into the center of the circle and mark where you want it to be. Glue strip ¼" away from the center fold of the card. Only put glue on half of the strip! A look at my video maybe helpful on this step. Now glue the inside sentiment piece to the other piece of Rich Razzleberry cardstock cut to 4" x 5 ¼". Glue to the inside of the card on top of the glued half of the strip. Now glue one solid circle to the underneath side of the strip that is folded over. Be careful to check the positioning with the front. Once that is in place and glued to the strip, glue the top circle with the snowflake on top to the top of the strip, matching circles.
10. Lastly position your penguin making sure it is in the center of your front card open circle and glue to the circle on the inside.
11. Adhere the sentiment to the upper right front of the card.
12. Glue three Pearl Basic Jewels beside the penguin. You are now finished!
